Senior Stories: Arely Larraga-Guerrero, graduating senior at Dudley High, describes her school of more than 1,500 students as a small community.

“It’s the environment of the school,” she explained. “I personally feel so close to the people at school. I’ve known a lot of them since elementary and middle school. That along with extracurricular activities, we do a lot together which contributes to the community feel.”

#gcsgradssoar21

Read more of Arely’s story here: http://ow.ly/8epf50EQkRG