More than twenty years ago, Harmony Public Schools opened its first campus in Houston’s historic Braeswood neighborhood. Since then, we’ve grown into one of the state’s most trusted and recognized schools for college preparation, character education and STEM curriculum. Now, with your support, we’re looking to expand to create even more opportunities for children across the Lone Star State.