Have you been to the IMC at West High? It isn't just a media center, it is an eclectic learning and access center for all students. You'll catch students relaxing, doing homework, reading books and even playing chess in this very welcoming IMC. It boasts student reviews, student artwork, chill areas, student-named study sections, an ELL office, counseling materials and even hosts college representatives. Here are a few photos showcasing the library that students love to visit!

“Reading is a fundamental skill and so important for kids. I’ve seen reading change lives! My challenge is to find the right book, get them hooked and hopefully create lifelong readers. Nothing is more fulfilling than hearing classes are getting easier for students because their reading level has gone up. It is so rewarding! If you can get to grade level and beyond, nothing can stop you.”
