

PASSPORT

• TO CHANGE THE WORLD •

...

...

AT SWARTHMORE, students do more than just hone their intellectual and analytical abilities. They develop a guiding moral compass that inspires them to work for equality, peace, and justice.

Whether tutoring students in Chester, fighting for equal rights in Pakistan, or leading a malaria initiative in Senegal, Swarthmore students and alumni are changing the world for the better.

WILL YOU JOIN THEM?

20% of Swarthmore students have dual citizenship or an international home address.

Efua Asibon '16 donating supplies to the Hopesetters Autism School in Tema, Ghana.

200+ alumni have received international Fulbright Scholarships.

Nancy Yuan '20 helps Afghan refugees in Iran.

40% of students study abroad.

Greta Studier '19 at NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory.

Swarthmore students represented 54 countries last year.

Hussain Zaidi '22 and Pehchan volunteers in Lahore, Pakistan.

Changing Lives
Changing the World
Swarthmore

Help Swarthmore
students on their journeys
to change the world.
Make your gift today.

gift.swarthmore.edu