President Trump points at the media and calls them fake news during the NRA-ILA Leadership Forum on April 26 in Indianapolis. Trump spoke about the history of gun violence in America, and he introduced people who have experienced dealing with situations and losses.

Donald Trump is inarguably racist

Excerpt from an editorial

...in 2018. This is specific- ally inciting racism against four con- gresswomen of color, two of which are the first Muslim women and one of whom is an Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, Illhan Omar, Ayanna Pressley and Rashida Tlaib, all seated in such a way that the audience can clearly see them as Muslim.

Trump’s mind has a wire through it. It’s a strategy that works for him, and he always will be rac- ist. He has always been racist, and he is specifically inciting racism against four con- gresswomen of color, two of which are the first Muslim women and one of whom is an Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, Ilhan Omar, Ayanna Pressley and Rashida Tlaib, all seated in such a way that the audience can clearly see them as Muslim.

Th e rhetoric here is as- tronomical. Trump is saying that we need to address the Muslim ban and started the discussion is horrendous, and it’s even worse that there’s no reason.

Th ankfully, most of our sen- ators have at least a little bit of empathy for these people, but Paul’s actions are inex-usable and pathetic. But when we’re talking about people who are dy- ing from cancer or unable to work as a result of envi- ronmental causes, then it’s really not something that can be afforded to ignore. I am happy to know these men and women will soon get the support they deserve, but it’s a stain on our government that it has taken this long for the fund to become permanent. Rand Paul and any who de- ride his actions should be ashamed of themselves.
