Two NIC students bond over hours of practicing and performing as a duo. Hailey Levasseur and Kailey Martinelli said they look forward to what a future in music might bring.

For the Love of the Game

By Catrina Martinson, Copy Editor
Photo by Gerry McCray

One student’s story about family and basketball. Halle Bierall reflects on her time at NIC and the future for her and her son.

The Week the Nation Changed

By Catrina Martinson, Copy Editor
Photo by Hannah Neff

A journal of the Sentinel staff’s visit to New York City amidst the start of the COVID-19 pandemic and how the outbreak affected the trip and the lives of those involved.

Dynamic Duo

By Hannah Neff, Magazine Editor
Photo by Kai Eagley

Two NIC students bond over hours of practicing and performing as a duo. Hailey Levasseur and Kailey Martinelli said they look forward to what a future in music might bring.

For the Love of the Game

By Catrina Martinson, Copy Editor
Photo by Gerry McCray

One student’s story about family and basketball. Halle Bierall reflects on her time at NIC and the future for her and her son.

The Week the Nation Changed

By Catrina Martinson, Copy Editor
Photo by Hannah Neff

A journal of the Sentinel staff’s visit to New York City amidst the start of the COVID-19 pandemic and how the outbreak affected the trip and the lives of those involved.

Promising Season Ends Abruptly

NIC women’s basketball postseason derailed by COVID-19

East Region Champs?

Postseason sanctions overshadow 28-win season

Q&A with Bryan Hannaford

We talked with professor Hannaford about his career, time at NIC and his general advice for music students

Campus Myth Busted

The secret is out. Staff member reveals ringing on campus is not from a bell

Sew Many Masks, Sew Much Support

One NIC student’s commitment to protect the community one mask at a time

Tips for students to become more environmentally conscious

NIC and Coeur d’Alene themed crossword puzzle and cryptic photo guessing game

Table of Contents

12 Dynamic Duo

By Hannah Neff, Magazine Editor
Photo by Kai Eagley

Two NIC students bond over hours of practicing and performing as a duo. Hailey Levasseur and Kailey Martinelli said they look forward to what a future in music might bring.

For the Love of the Game

By Catrina Martinson, Copy Editor
Photo by Gerry McCray

One student’s story about family and basketball. Halle Bierall reflects on her time at NIC and the future for her and her son.

The Week the Nation Changed

By Catrina Martinson, Copy Editor
Photo by Hannah Neff

A journal of the Sentinel staff’s visit to New York City amidst the start of the COVID-19 pandemic and how the outbreak affected the trip and the lives of those involved.

Promising Season Ends Abruptly

NIC women’s basketball postseason derailed by COVID-19

East Region Champs?

Postseason sanctions overshadow 28-win season

Q&A with Bryan Hannaford

We talked with professor Hannaford about his career, time at NIC and his general advice for music students

Campus Myth Busted

The secret is out. Staff member reveals ringing on campus is not from a bell

Sew Many Masks, Sew Much Support

One NIC student’s commitment to protect the community one mask at a time

Tips for students to become more environmentally conscious

NIC and Coeur d’Alene themed crossword puzzle and cryptic photo guessing game