

2026 Leadership: Post-Completion Plática Series

Purpose

The Leadership: Post-Completion Plática Series engages institutional teams in developing, implementing, and measuring support systems for post-completion success. Learn and share strategies, evidence-based practices, and models that prepare and link Latino, and all, students to the workforce for social and economic mobility.

Overview

Date: Consists of three virtual modules over 3 consecutive Tuesdays in November.

- Plática 1: November 3, 2:00-4:00pm ET

- Measuring and Tracking Outcomes to Drive Data-Informed Workforce Preparation

Learning Outcomes:

- Learn the different workforce and post-completion data available to institutions to document impact and measure outcomes of institutional post-completion efforts.
- Examine frameworks, methods, and approaches from peer institutions to identify metrics and measurements to disaggregate, assess and evaluate impact of post-completion efforts.

- Plática 2: November 10, 2:00-4:00pm ET

- Preparing Students to Thrive in the Workforce Post-Completion

Learning Outcomes:

- Learn how to embed career development into academics and across units and departments to more intentionally prepare Latino, and all, students for the workforce.
- Learn about culturally relevant practices designed to accelerate Latino post-completion success.
- Learn how peer institutions identify and secure resources to develop, replicate and scale evidence-based efforts to prepare Latino talent for post-completion success.

- Plática 3: November 17, 2:00-4:00pm ET

- Linking Students to Workforce Opportunities Through Partnerships and Experiential Learning

Learning Outcomes:

- Identify strategies and practices to forge intentional partnerships with employers and community-based organizations to connect education to careers grounded in tactical actions, shared accountability, and mutual-benefitting outcomes.
- Learn models and approaches to link institutional efforts to industry and community needs to provide Latino students the co-curricular experiences needed for high-quality, high-paying employment post-completion.
